

DEAD GOOD

VAMOS
THEATRE

PERFORMANCE WORKSHOP

Vamos Theatre is the UK's leading full mask theatre company and we've been sharing our skills with schools, special schools, colleges and universities since 2006. Every year, we offer students from KS3 to degree level, the chance to take part in special performance workshops accompanying our national and international tours.

DEAD GOOD PERFORMANCE WORKSHOP

DEAD GOOD

Dead Good is a witty and poignant, full mask theatre show about Bob and Bernard, who have only two things in common: they're both dying...and they're not going down without a fight. Made in Vamos Theatre's funny and fearless, wordless style, it's a great chance for students to see top flight mask and physical theatre performance, and encourages thinking and talking about themes of life and death.

THE WORKSHOP

Designed to accompany a visit to a performance, the Dead Good Performance Workshop is led by a member of the cast or creative team. A fast paced and playful session, it helps students gain insight into the show's themes and characters, as well as learning about mask, physical theatre and devising from given stimulus

The highlights...

- Gain additional insight and skills alongside your theatre visit
- Learn performance skills from the UK's best mask performers
- Discover characterisation, physical storytelling and clarity of movement
- Explore devising from a given stimulus
- Also available to Youth Theatres and community groups
- Can be combined with reduced group tickets (talk to your local venue)

RESOURCES

Support your students' learning with our on-line resources, available to all workshop bookers, including a Dead Good Education Pack, a comprehensive Mask Resource Pack, and access to complete performance films.

Most of our workshops can be led by a deaf practitioner for deaf and HoH students: just let us know. All our workshop practitioners are DBS checked.
