Vamos Theatre, in a co-production with The Courtyard, Herefordshire's Centre for the Arts, presents

FINDING JOY

PROMOTERS' INFORMATION

FINDING JOY

The funny and fearless international sell-out mask production from Vamos Theatre

Joy is 83 today: she's feisty, loves to dance, and is losing her memory. Her grandson Danny is rebellious, bright and always getting into trouble. When Danny decides to look after Joy, they discover a shared playfulness and mutual affection. But is that enough to take on the challenges ahead?

Vamos Theatre's wordless world brings this story of lost memories and discovered love vividly to life, in the production that established Vamos Theatre as the UK's leading full mask theatre company.

Finding Joy first opened at London International Mime Festival 2014 and premiered internationally at Jyväskylä Festival, Finland in 2015

REVIEWS

"[Finding Joy] brilliantly conveys a sense of how frightening the world seems through Joy's eyes ... the storytelling is excellent"

Lyn Gardner, The Guardian

"★★★★★ Finding Joy can be summed up in two words: simply beautiful"

Barbara Maxwell, What's On Stage

"★★★★★ Told with no words, just a beautiful soundtrack echoing different periods of Joy's life, the magic of this production is the incredible storytelling through mime alone"

Rhiannon Lawson, The Public Reviews

"★★★★★ Quite simply, a triumph." Dan English, Inquire

"A genuinely original, beautiful piece of work "

Duncan Hall, The Brighton Argus (2014 ARGUS ANGEL WINNER)

WHAT PROMOTERS SAY...

"This show is truly exceptional..."

David Jack: Director, Theatre Severn

"We're booking Vamos for the third time following two excellent and well-attended shows. I'm thoroughly looking forward to their return."

Ali Robertson: Director, Tobacco Factory Theatre, Bristol

"I emerged from the theatre brim-full of the sheer humanity of the story and glowing from the love lavished on this simple but deeply affecting production. Bravo!"

Daniel Buckroyd: Artistic Director, Mercury Theatre, Colchester
